MILLENNIUM SCULPTURE PLAQUE

The Parish Council realised that the sculpture needed some explanation for people who were not local to the area, but it wanted something distinct and tasteful, which would last for many years and would not spoil the appearance of the Sculpture.

The Parish Council was successful in obtaining a grant from Kettering Borough Council for the bronze plaque and was able to fund the stone work from its savings. Councillors hope that it is appreciated.

BEST VILLAGE COMPETITION-UPDATE

There is now a photograph taken at the presentation evening of the competition.

It shows Great Cransley Councillors and Clerk being presented with the Runner-up Certificate by David Laing, H M Lord Lieutenant of Northamptonshire.

It can be seen on noticeboards in the Village Hall and also outside the playground.
